COMMUNIQUÉ # 1103 MONDAY 21st MAY

UNITY! FREEDOM! SOCIALISM! - ONE CIVIL SERVICE UNION, ONE GLORIOUS DESTINY!

THE BRIGHTON OLYMPICS

By Judas Iscariot

Another dreary day in Brighton, brightened only by the sound of cheery grandees celebrating their now traditional victory in the national elections and one more year in residence at Falconcrest. But despite a mediocre turn-out in last week's big push on pensions our great and glorious leader MARK SERWOTKA maintains that the tide is turning and vows to support "discreet" industrial action over the summer. SERWOTKA says the election results in France and Greece showed significant opposition to austerity. True indeed. But MAREK's analysis glosses over the uncomfortable facts that a fifth of the French electorate also voted fascist and 12 per cent of the Greeks backed the neo-nazi GOLDEN DAWN. And most of the rest of the opposition voted for social-democratic parties that SERWOTKA affects to despise in the UK.

Nevertheless the grandees are determined to push ahead with support for a yet another left political alternative to LABOUR while the drive for amalgamation with UNITE, the biggest dinosaur in the TUC, continues unabated despite the fact that there's no rank and file enthusiasm for it at all.

Though Mrs PRIESTLEY held her position in HMRC and 4TM helped thwart HECTOR WESLEY, the BIG TENT swept the board on the NEC. 4TM was left with just one seat, barely held by JAKE WILDE, who has already privately said that he won't take it as his presence will be a pointless waste of time, which just about sums up his faction these days.

Meanwhile, MALCOLM YOUNG, a middle-aged PCS Branch Chair and workshop instructor at Swaleside prison on the Isle of Sheppey in Kent, is in line for probationary martyrdom since his prison governor was suspended after an incident on last week's picket line. Witnesses claim that the governor, JIM BOURKE, drove his car on the wrong side of the road before stopping near a group of 250 PCS protesters.

BOURKE allegedly used FOUL LANGUAGE in abusing YOUNG

Gov Bourke

before attempting to push him out of the way. BOURKE, a former screw, has now been suspended from duty while senior PRISON SERVICE officials conduct an inquiry. FALCONCREST said members were 'horrified by what they saw'.

Earlier, Governor Bourke is said to have phoned Kent police, who sent two officers in a van to investigate his claims that the pickets were causing an obstruction outside the jail. The officers concluded that no offence had been committed and decided to take no action.

Later, after a second call from the jail, Kent Police Chief Inspector PETER de LOZEY went to the scene. After talking to pickets, he also decided against any action. A Police spokesman said: 'People have the right to take part in organised and peaceful protests. The police facilitate this and will take action only if this right to protest is abused.' No love lost there then.

MALCOLM has form, having had previous run-ins with "Authority". Only last year he made headlines protesting at the failure of fellow shoppers and security staff to evacuate a Sittingbourne shopping mall during a fire. YOUNG said "I couldn't believe people's complacency. Members of the public were still walking in through both doors and the staff were just watching them" (while the alarm was sounding). If he's here this week, can one of you please nudge him in our direction.

At CHATEAU FALCONCREST the news is that 60 more staff redundancies are in the offing. But as some work will still need to be covered some staff will have to re-recruited. Some blame CHRIS BAUGH but everyone knows that blame lies with the FAT CONTROLLER, HR Supremo NIGEL PEARCE.

Baugh bladdered

But the Titanic struggle between LEON BOFF and HUGH LANNING continues as BOFF persists in trying to curb HUGO's immense foreign travel budget. Not even BAXTER HOARE can stop LANNING.

ADAM KHALIF's rise to glory continues. He's now been elected to every post in the union. In the certain knowledge that FRAN HEATHCOTE is a one term President in DWP, KHALIF is JOHN McINALLY's compromise candidate. ADAM is not one of BIG MAC's Socialist Party comrades but he is happy to be told what to do. Not that anyone knows what he actually does.

Back in PCS Democrats, "SIMPLE" SIMON COLLIS has packed his bags and gone off to form his own faction. SIMPLE has sampled every faction in town in his futile quest for power But now the only one that will have him is his own new "KEEP IT SIMPLE" bloc which currently consists of two members. Less big tent, more phone box.

Naked Cyclist, NEIL LICENCE, is back in town for his annual holiday (PFL passim) Elected to the NEC for the umpteenth year, most conference goers will be saying NEIL Who? LICENCE just smiles and collects his expenses (and soft saddle).

Siddal-Butchers

Meanwhile rising superstar GLENN SIDDALL-BUTCHERS has been elected to the NEC for the first time. Known as “Bonkers” to his friends - no we don't know why either. Yet. BONKERS has eyes on the MoJ Presidency and National Vice President next year. Watch this space.

Left Unity grandees are hoping to lose their first membership ballot since gaining the leadership after RAMSBLADDER'S failed coup. They're hoping that members will reject the bid for PCS to form a Government. LU want a merger with Unite. But Unite leadership is wedded to the Labour Party and won't look too kindly on PCS running candidates against ED MILIBAND'S boys and girls.

KERRY FAIRLESS gets to spend more time in Southend after MADAME PRIESTLEY comfortably saw off his bid for HMRC Presidency. FEEBLE FAIRLESS was so confident of winning he didn't even put in a fall-back nomination for the GEC. Know anything about VAT now Kerry?

Bizarre is the only word you can use for this year's séance (aka elections) in the MOD (now Defence Spectre Group). Those elected unopposed (all Lunity) were 'President For Life' CHRIS DODO, Treasurer JOHN 'GINGERNUT' WILSON and Organiser JAMES 'RODENT' RATCLIFF. The Vice President post went to moderati ROB 'BOWERY BOY' BOWERS who beat Lunity's KC 'DOZY TRUCKER' JONES by a substantial margin. Lunity took 6 of the 8 AGS positions. On the GEC Lunity took 7 posts, moderati 3 posts and independents 4 posts. Significantly, only 14 of the 16 posts were filled. Another Lunity casualty was STEVE 'THE GOOD DOCTOR' SHIPMAN who failed to get re-elected on the Standing Orders Committee losing out to 3 rookies. Supreme champions of the Group elections were MOD LECONFIELD (aka GREASY TRUCKERS BRANCH) whose candidates won 5 seats.

New readers should note that the majority of successful LUNITY candidates class themselves as radical on the basis that they once voted Labour.

BRIGADIER HARDING is in mourning over the depleted status of his infamous Conference Drinking Club. This year's absentees include HALFPENNY, HIPPY HETHERINGTON, IAN 'SUGAR RAY' FRASER, CALUM CAMPBELL, JOHN LYONS, JONATHAN 'PREDATORY' SHIPMAN AND PAUL 'WOOKIE' DeVINE. However he can rely on the company of regular imbibers CHARLIE SLOAN, LORNA GARRICK, BERNIE PAGENT, ROBERT JACK, ADOLPH TAYLOR, H O'HARNEY and of course his faithful batman and supreme toilet seat warmer JOHN SINGH.

Sadly we will not have the pleasure of the Honourable JOE 'le Taxi' COX JP at this week's proceedings. The self-styled BIG, FAT GEORDIE BASTARD and one time Moderati leader in Newcastle, is a leading FREEMASON who has a stake in a lucrative mini-cab company. He has to attend the funeral of one of his cab-drivers who passed away last week. Nor will we see much of the delectable RACHEL BARROWCLOUGH, who goes home on Wednesday because of “problems in her branch” (ie she did not get elected to come to main conference).

PFLCPSA NEWS

Glad you could join us. There's one or two things we need to talk about. The Economy is fucked. The Climate is fucked. The Euro is fucked. Afghanistan is fucked and so on. But none of us can do anything about any of that shit, so we're here to talk about the unprecedented attacks by the State on Public Sector workers across the land. We obviously can't do much about those either, but your mission, should you choose to accept it, is to convince yourselves, by the end of the week, that it's all been worth the effort and that we can and will do something to stem the flow of blood. Good luck with that.

Keepin it reel for the 35th year, the PFL web of informers and deep cover agents will, for a small fee, let you know what's really going on behind the scenes. If you haven't managed to feed us your snippets during daylight hours, our traditional soiree can still be found in a gently haunted section of the Old Ship for the odd hour before closing time. Late news can be piped through the usual channels until about 3am on a good night. Copy will magically appear online sometime in the few hours after that.

The usual souvenir T Shirts (£12) and Self Immolation Starter Packs will be on sale from the old codger who walks around with a shrunken head on a stick. (Let that be a warning to you all) He wishes it to be known that he is profoundly grateful for the ongoing celebrations and forthcoming street parties commemorating his threescore and ten. And for the occasional sniffers you will no doubt push under his nose.

Donations are ~~required~~ invited at the usual rates, a pound a day will keep ~~the old codger in fish and chips~~ the presses rolling. Folding money is particularly appreciated and, for a purple one, said codger will let you stroke his stick for five minutes.
