COMMUNIQUÉ # 1403 FRIDAY 18th MAY

UNITY! FREEDOM! SOCIALISM! - ONE CIVIL SERVICE UNION, ONE GLORIOUS DESTINY!

30 GLORIOUS YEARS OF THE PFL

By Judas Iscariot

There was some minor unpleasantness at the Oak, the bar of the Quality Hotel, on Tuesday night. A Young Members delegate who cannot be named and a female trainee delegate, whose name has been withheld, returned for late night drinks in the company of two young ladies. Unfortunately the night manager thought that the aforesaid young ladies were “working girls” and asked them to leave at once as they were not supplied by him through his usual contacts. This was much to the relief of CHARLIE SLOAN to whom one the ladies had already made lewd and unwelcome advances. CHARLIE is the DWP rockabilly rebel with the haircut like a cross between a monochrome deck chair and a racoon’s arse.

In an unconnected incident at the same hotel on Thursday a man was escorted from the premises in handcuffs by the police. And before you ask – no, we don’t know the identity of the prisoner.

You were there but you wouldn’t have noticed ALAN SMITH (DWP Leeds) confirming his nonentity status with an speech at Conference on Wednesday that was the shortest and the most inane of the day. “We’re against the motion not just the numbers,” he said on Motion 273 then failed to give any reason why his branch actually opposed it.

Was STEVE CAWKWELL himself the instigator of the leaflet which was given out with such glee by 4TM outside conference on Wednesday? The leaflet was a massive Broad Left puff-piece for CORKY in his election battle against MAREK SERWOTKA back in 1993. STEVE is still bitter that all he’s got for his years of loyal service to the left is a poxy organiser’s job which sees him acting as conference speech monitor and trainee delegate babysitter. He’s whingeing that he’s been leapfrogged by those who did not attain his exalted elected status yet have been rewarded with senior (and more importantly) much better paid posts than him.

In the rush to sell Falconcrest one thing seems to have been overlooked. We seem to recall that CPSA received a shed-load of dosh from the local council to assist in the building of the chateau in what was then a depressed area. No doubt CPSA entered into a proper and equitable agreement at the time and it may be that the good Burghers of Wandsworth will expect their share of the profits when the property is sold. Has anyone read the contract?

At the tedious Royal Albion Revenue and Customs LU do, MR BEAN gave a pep talk to anyone listening amongst the sparse crowd after losing ground to the INDIES in the GEC elections. MARTIN MENEAR, freshly deposed from the GEC, was sitting prominently at the front. NIGEL BULLER was also in attendance, confirming his new allegiances.

The East Yorks and North Lincs Revenue delegation tried to get into The Font last night but were stopped on the door and asked for ID. HAYLEY BROWN (25), currently squired by JAKE the RAKE, is used to this sort of thing and had hers ready. But JAMES ASHTON (26) was unable to convince the bouncers that he was indeed old enough to get into the pub. This prompted a disgruntled ASHTON to storm off muttering about how he “could have taken” all three bouncers in one go.

Veteran PFL officer RAY ALDERSON celebrated the award of his DSM in the usual manner at the Fiddlers’ Elbow Wednesday evening. JIM HANSON, of course, was there along with ANN JARVIS and FRANK CAMPBELL, who was tottering around telling everyone in reach that he loved them before commonsense – in the shape of RAY’S long suffering wife CHRIS – managed to get him home before he actually proposed to anyone. True to form, RAY managed to mislay his award from only hours earlier – fortunately now found and being mailed to his home. JARVIS, late of this union, is finally marrying her long-standing partner, MR FRANK HAMILL, presumably for tax purposes. She is currently working as a full-time official for the radiographers union. It won’t take them long to see through her.

Motion 499 fell because PAUL HUME (DWP Lambeth & Southwark) was not in the hall to move it. This is the fourth “falls - no mover” that we’ve had this year. HUME’S been coming to conference long enough to know better. PAUL’s previous claim to fame was being slung out of the CARCASE cos he’s too mad even for them.

ROB BRYSON was a trifle concerned when he got the bill from the HILTON for the 4TM fringe meeting he bankrolled with his credit card on Wednesday. The hire of the hall and the cost of the refreshments came to £350 including VAT but WILDE “forgot” to call for a collection and BRYSON will be considerably out of pocket if he doesn’t get reimbursed before the charge appears on his statement. When he mentioned this to MOIRA CAMPBELL he was told not to worry as 4TM “had thousands” in its bank account. But the treasurer, ALAN CAMPBELL-NIMMO, in hospital this week having part of his surname removed, is blissfully unaware of JAKE's profligacy.

By the way, we are pleased to note that former MOD Group President RICHARD DELANGE has offered to personally deliver BOB BOWMAN'S DLM medal when he goes to AUSTRALIA on holiday this year. We can assume this magnanimous gesture will be accompanied by DERANGED's usual outrageous expenses claim.

Have you seen the NEC plasma screen in front of the top table this week? It's now been returned to the first Test match.

HUGH LANNING is officially denying any intention of retiring in 2009. The useless parasite told one of our informers that like Mrs THATCHER, he intends to go on and on and on. HUGO should remember that she was stabbed in the back too...

ROBIN JONES (Welsh Assembly) fell asleep in his Courtlands Hotel bog for four hours (again). And Welsh regional officer JEFF EVANS would have dropped off had he not been sustained by the continuing lucre that comes his way from THOMPSONS solicitors. LENIN lookalike

EVANS is well known for his privileged access to tickets for Welsh rugby internationals that are so highly prized in the principality. These tickets are supplied by Thompsons and they are meant to be offered to the wider membership but somehow they always end up in the hands of EVANS and his cronies.

PCS Democrats NEC member STEVE "pudding head" COMER has been elected leader of the Liberal Democrat Group on Bristol City Council following the May local elections in England. STEVE, a ringer for BORIS JOHNSON, led a palace coup to dump former leader, BARBARA JANKE, who was blamed for the failure of the Lib Dems to increase their share of the votes in the polls. COMER, who was previously deputy leader, clearly played no part in his party's poor performance. PUDDING HEAD, who follows BRISTOL ROVERS, was the councillor responsible for agreeing the council domain name change from "bristol-city.gov" to "bristol.gov" because he couldn't bear to see the name of the more successful BRISTOL CITY FC every time he used his council email.

You've ignored our considered advice on A22 and A87 and you will all burn in hell as a result. There's nothing important going on this morning so you might as well all go home and prepare to meet your maker. *****

PFLCPSA NEWS – PFL Celebrates 30 Glorious years.

What a glowing record of achievement. Like the Rothschilds, we've carefully maintained and nurtured both sides of the sectarian divide. Provoking nominations here, withdrawal of motions there, a magnified rumour here, illicit gossip there; For No Other Reason than Discord. The foundation of both the Broad Left AND the Moderates are among our greater triumphs. The halcyon decades of rule by REAMSBOTTOM - our highest placed deep cover agent - come a close second. Most recently, of course, we arranged the sinecure of Marek Serwotka. In these and a thousand other ways, we remain the hidden hand behind the scenes. The clever bit is getting them all to believe that they are still exercising their free will. And people ask us why we do all this... It's certainly not for such trivial purposes as making ageing SOCIALIST WANKERS laugh.

Anyway, well done for staying the course once more. It must be good to know that about you the trouble of calling meetings and writing circulars to justify your paid seaside holiday,

Geese yer dosh yer bastards

why not just point them to www.pflcpsa.com where (from Monday) they'll be able to read our full conference coverage and 30 years of archived material. Colonel Islam is fully committed to the proposed Wiki entry and promises to get it up before next year's jamboree.

Until then, you can continue to feed us your valuable field reports and analysis through the web site. You still can't feed us cash on the web, though, so to support our campaigning zeal you need to bung us the largest donation you can possibly afford before slinking off back to your branches. Folding money and negotiable bonds are favourite, but if you must empty your pockets of shrapnel, we'll find room in the bucket for all of it. A few T-Shirts are still in stock and we can take orders for postal delivery after conference. So bibi conference. If you wake up in someone else's bed tomorrow morning, you can't blame it on us. Thanks to all our "throats" who kept our finger on the pulse throughout the week and the rest of the year. Thanks to Judas, Barrabas, Apollo, Hellboy, Deep, Halfbrain, Cagoule and many others who shall remain nameless for the moment not to mention STUART and his team at ARTWORKER for delivering the copies on time (except Wednesday, which we won't mention). And thanks to all of YOU for having us. Goodnight and Good Luck.
